The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Edwin I. Bernard, is hereby committed on Count 1, 2, 3, and 4 of the Second Superseding Information to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of LIFE. This term consists of 240 months on each of Counts 1 and 2 of the Second Superseding Information, 360 months on Count 3, and life on Count 4, to be served concurrently.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $400, which is due immediately. This condition does not prohibit the defendant from possessing materials solely because they are necessary to, and used for, a collateral attack, nor does it prohibit the defendant from possessing materials prepared and used for the purposes of the defendant's Court-mandated sex offender treatment, when the defendant's treatment provider or the probation officer has approved of the defendant's possession of the material in advance.
13. The defendant shall not own, use or have access to the services of any commercial mail-receiving agency, nor shall the defendant open or maintain a post office box, without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.

16. The defendant shall not affiliate with, own, control, volunteer or be employed in any capacity by a business or organization that causes the defendant to regularly contact persons under the age of 18.
17. The defendant shall not affiliate with, own, control, volunteer or be employed in any capacity by a business whose principal product is the production or selling of materials depicting or describing "sexually explicit conduct," as defined at 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2).

Further, the defendant shall remain at least 100 yards from the victims at all times. If any contact occurs, the defendant shall immediately leave the area of contact and report the contact to the Probation Officer.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report, and any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the treatment provider. The treatment provider may provide information (excluding the Presentence report), to State or local social service agencies (such as the State of California, Department of Social Service), for the purpose of the client's rehabilitation.
